

ANTI-BULLYING WEEK

MONDAY 11 TO FRIDAY 15 NOVEMBER 2024

Our 3 key principles:

What does respect mean to the adults at Buckstone Primary School?

Video link: <https://youtu.be/GD52pu5j66o?feature=shared>

What is respect?

Respect means
different things to different people.

We can show respect in many ways, through how we act and in what we say.

What does respect mean to you?

Take a few moments to think about this.

Learning about respect is our right!

Article 29 of the UNCRC

Now enforceable in Scots law, is summarised as:

“A child or young person’s education should help their mind, body and talents be the best they can.

It should also build their respect for other people and the world around them. In particular they should learn to respect their rights and the rights of others, their freedoms and the freedoms of others.”

Our anti-bullying guidance for children and adults:

Buckstone; Beating Bullying

What are my options? Advice for children

Tell an adult.

Find a way of dealing with your feelings. For example, read, listen to music or meditate.

Have the last laugh by laughing, using a funny retort or making a joke.

Try to ignore it, a bully's words become powerless if they have no effect.

Ask them to stop. Sometimes people do not realise how their words or actions are affecting you.

Keep a diary—this is a good way of keeping a record of events.

Do's

⇒ Be aware that the bully might not tell the truth

⇒ Give me time and listen to me

⇒ Check in regularly even when the issue is resolved

⇒ Give me options and discuss these with me

⇒ Make time to have conversations in a private place

⇒ Take it seriously

⇒ Ask me how I would like it to be dealt with

⇒ Talk to everyone involved

⇒ Listen to me

Don'ts

○ Don't make me face the bully and force them to say sorry

○ Don't tell me its ok and take no action

○ Don't tell me to 'sort it out yourself' or to 'just ignore it'

○ Don't make me feel like its my fault

○ Don't make me feel bad for telling you

○ Don't pass it on to others who don't need to know

Bullying, what are my options?

- video link:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jj7u9vObOwU&t=66s>

Buckstone; Beating Bullying

What are my options? Advice for children

Tell an adult.

Find a way of dealing with your feelings. For example, read, listen to music or meditate.

Have the last laugh by laughing, using a funny retort or making a joke.

Try to ignore it, a bully's words become powerless if they have no effect.

Ask them to stop. Sometimes people do not realise how their words or actions are affecting you.

Keep a diary—this is a good way of keeping a record of events.

We challenge you!
Your task this
anti-bullying week...

Buckstone's Anti-Bullying Week 2024

Respect

Classroom Challenge Board

Our class read a book or watched a video about respect.	Everyone in our class shared a way that they can be respectful with their words.	Everyone in our class shared a way that they can be respectful with their actions.
Everyone in our class can describe what respect means to them.	Our class always shows respect to the school's and other people's property.	Our class took part in the secret respect buddy challenge. *
Our class always listens to our teacher/ adult and stays focussed during learning.	Our class knows why it is important to be respectful.	Our class can all share a time when they felt respected.
Our teacher told us about a time when they felt respected.	Our class can all share a time when they included someone who was left out.	Our class can all share a time when they complemented someone/ received a compliment.

- Secret Respect Buddy Challenge – each child receives a card with someone in the class' name on it. They should not share who they get. Over the course of the week, you should go out of your way to be respectful towards this person/ go over and above. At the end of the week can children guess who their secret respect buddy was?

#ANTIBULLYINGWEEK

#RESPECT

#RESPECTMEANS