Let's see which articles are linked to Equality/Fairness and Equity

Although many other articles may also be linked.

Though not a right in itself, equity is an essential principle in the realisation of rights for all people.

LET'S DISCUSS

Consider the examples from our case study. Here, supplying pencil cases and water bottles is an example of equality (all children receive a pencil case); having clean PE kit is an example of equity the PE kit is there for children who don't have one.

1. What's the difference between equality and equity? How do they relate to fairness?

2. Where do we see equality and equity in at Buckstone?

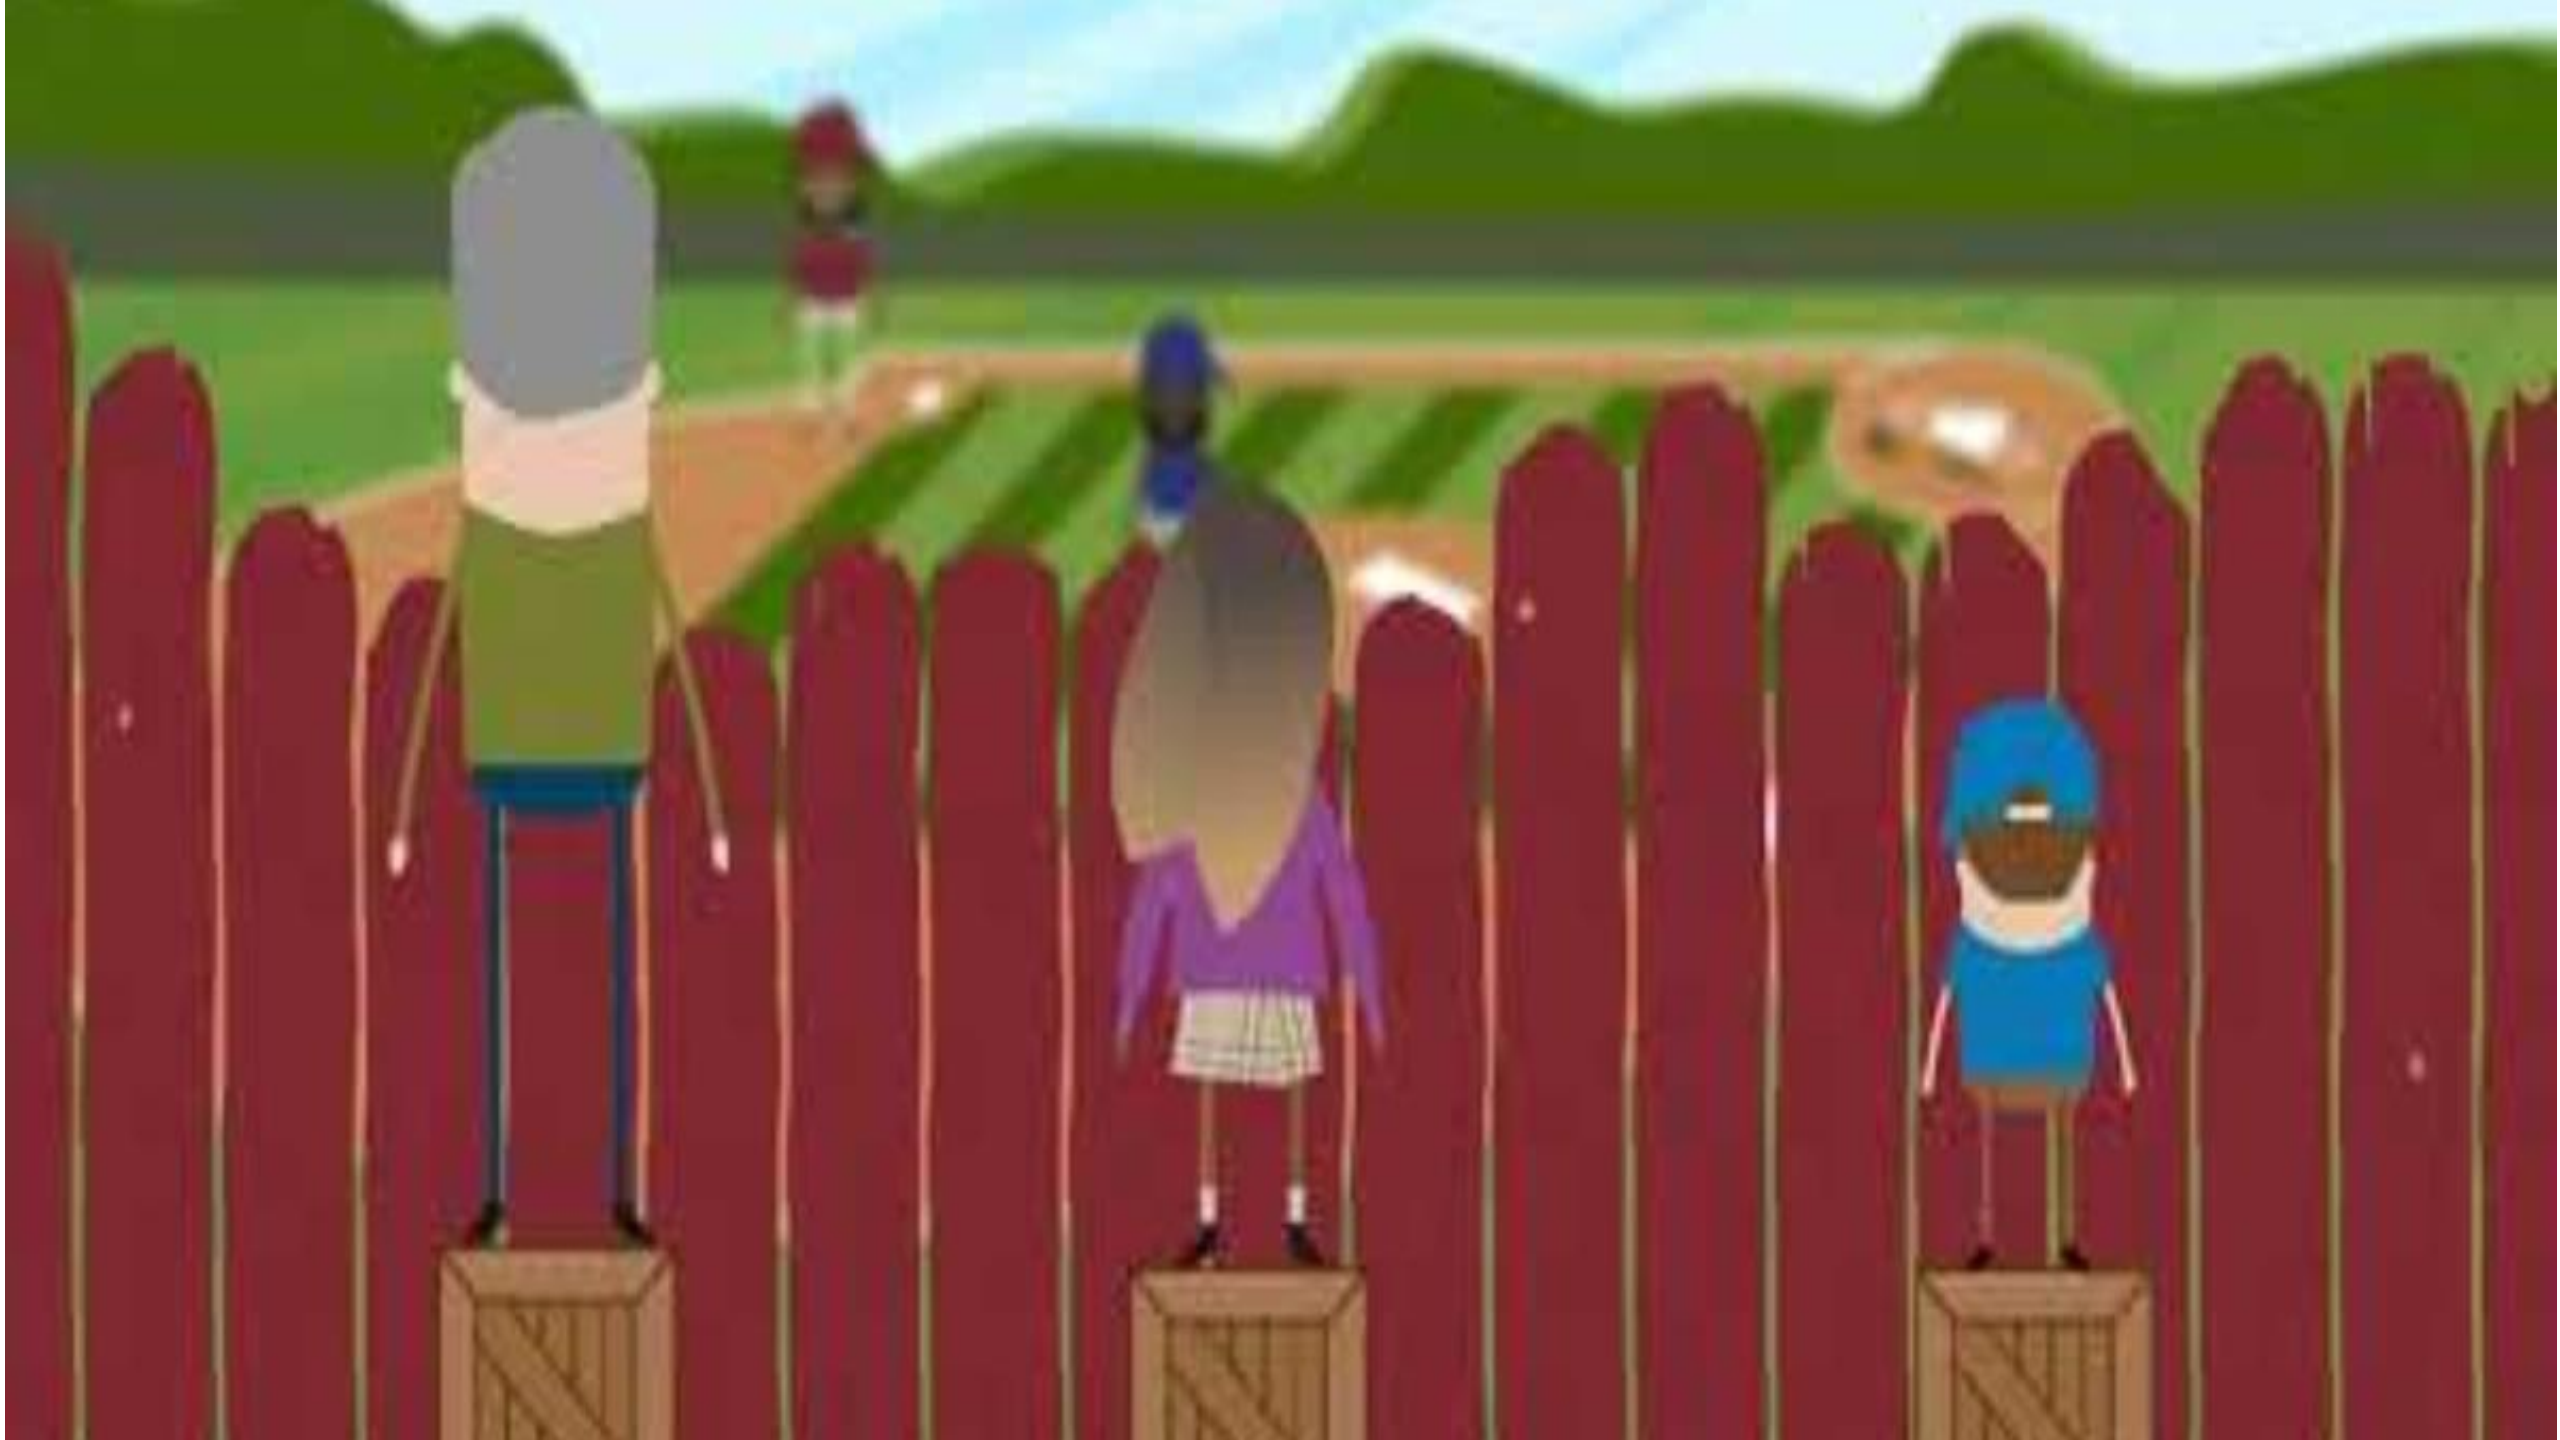

3. How can we help our school community understand the importance of equity?

ACTIVITIES

Consider the role of equality and equity in each of the following illustrative scenarios. Check the presenter notes for suggestions.

5. Your school has a small lift. Only staff and pupils with identified needs have a pass to use it. Other pupils are questioning why they can't all have a lift pass.
